IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents.

I am of legal age and have read the current prospectus(es), and this application. I hold harmless and indemnify Davis Distributors, LLC, each of the mutual funds for which it is distributor (“Clipper Fund”) and each of their respective partners, sub-advisers, directors, officers, employees and agents from any losses, expenses, costs or liability (including attorney fees) which I may incur in connection with my instructions in this application and any other instructions given in writing, by telephone or electronically and reasonably believed to be genuine. Under the penalty of perjury, I certify that the Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number shown on this form is my correct Taxpayer Identification Number.

Depositor has received and read the applicable sections of the “State Street Bank and Trust Company Universal Individual Retirement Account Disclosure Statement” relating to this Account (including the Custodian’s fee schedule), and the Custodial Account document. Depositor acknowledges receipt of the Universal Individual Retirement Custodial Account document and Universal IRA Disclosure Statement at least 7 days before the date inscribed below and acknowledges that Depositor has no further right of revocation.

If the account owner is affiliated with, or employed by, a stock exchange, member firm of an exchange or FINRA or a municipal securities broker-dealer, it will be your responsibility to inform your employer of the establishment of this account.
